Summer Planning - Coffee Time Conversations

The Summer Session team in partnership with Rocco Fragomeni, Academic Affairs Director of Summer Planning, is hosting a series of conversational meetings to aid the campus in summer program planning beyond the traditional Summer Session courses. The goal of these meetings is to create an informal, safe, creative, collaborative brainstorming space for campus organizers to come together and discuss summer 2023 operations available to support a wide variety of credit and non-credit programs, and any questions they may have.

The meetings are set to occur on a biweekly basis. Team members from the Summer Session office will attend as Subject Matter Experts at the November 1 meeting. For questions, please contact Rocco Fragomeni at summerplanning@ucsd.edu. Registration will remain open and is required only for tracking meeting attendance. Faculty and staff who have questions and are hosting summer programs are encouraged to attend.
