Student Enrollment begins Soon!
As students become familiar with remote learning during the Spring Quarter, many students are asking “what about summer?”

The Schedule of Classes went live on Thursday, March 19, 2020.

The #1 question from students is regarding summer courses: will courses be taught in a classroom or remotely?

Academic Departments and Faculty should consider which type of instruction delivery is possible for Summer Session 2020. Summer Session will reach out to academic departments over the next two weeks to review courses on the Schedule of Classes.

As of today, the plan is to open enrollment for continuing students is scheduled to begin Monday, April 13, 2020. Enrollment for new students and visiting students may open Monday, April 20, 2020.

The Instructional Scheduling Application (ISA) is open to accept NEWLY ADDED courses for Summer Session. The best time to double check the schedule of classes is now. If changes to days, times, or to the calendar, are required, making the changes today will require less work than after students begin enrolling in courses.
