Virtual Triton Day: Saturday, April 4

The campus community came together to Virtually welcome admitted freshman students to UC San Diego. Triton Day is an annual event that showcases the campus. The virtual format will host a variety of ways to show our incoming students we welcome them through webinars and videos. At least 70 service units responded to participate in a series of welcome opportunities. More than 4200 student have responded to our invitation.

If you would like to view the Virtual Triton Day website, please only use this link, which is specific to internal campus users:

Admissions will continue to roll out additional information through the Virtual Triton Day website which will remain open and accessible to admitted students throughout the month leading up to the May 1 decision deadline.

Will Summer Session courses be taught on-campus or remotely?

Leadership teams across the state are actively considering the best course of action for summer students. Within the next two weeks, an official announcement will inform students for planning purposes prior to the start of enrollment.

Currently there are approximately 600 courses on the Schedule of Classes. Campus housing will open their application for room reservations the same day that students begin to enroll in courses.

Visiting Students Now Being Assigned PIDs

Every summer, 500+ visiting students from other UC campuses, CSUs, 4-year universities, community colleges, high schools, and International campuses enroll at UC San Diego. The application for visiting students opened last Monday, April 1. Visit our website to view the application.

Instructor Names Listed on the Schedule of Classes

The Schedule of Classes is now live. On a daily basis, instructor appointment letters are sent via email to each instructor. Instructor names are added to the Schedule of Classes by following the steps below:

1. Instructor – Accepts appointment
2. Department – Inputs instructor’s teaching appointment into PPS
3. Summer Session – Adds instructor name to Schedule of Classes
